9:00 PM

🎒 Repack for Araku

Move the overnight kit into backpacks and lock the trolleys tonight. See Packing → Backpack vs trolley.

Tips for the day

Short night. Keep the temple transfer flexible and add no stops before the Vizag cab.

Wear temple-appropriate clothes for Annavaram and Simhachalam; footwear is left at the counter.

Go to Simhachalam straight after check-in; queues build up in the evening.

Buy Sunday's snacks and water tonight; shops are shut at 4:30 AM.

6:30 PM

😴 Early dinner, early sleep

Confirm the 3:15 AM pickup, a packed breakfast or tea, and late check-out. Lights out by 9:00 PM.

Food – ₹600–1,200

Tips for the day

Before the train arrives, agree the afternoon route and the Monday 3:15 AM pickup with one driver.

Araku nights are cold in December. Keep a warm layer in your backpack, not the trolley.

Phone signal is patchy around Desia and Vanjangi. Download offline Google Maps for the Araku area.

Keep Araku coffee and chocolates in a ziplock in your backpack until Monday night.

Budget

For 3, excluding train fares. Stays, food and entries come to about ₹15,000–29,000; transport is on top. Monday's full-day cab (₹6,000–9,000) puts you in the upper half.

MOST PRACTICAL

Autos + cabs	₹8,700–16,000 pp
Road transport	₹11,000–19,000
Whole trip	₹26,000–48,000

MOST CONVENIENT

Private cab	₹10,000–18,700 pp
Road transport	₹15,000–27,000
Whole trip	₹30,000–56,000

LOWEST COST

Bus + auto	₹7,800–15,200 pp
Road transport	₹8,500–16,500
Whole trip	₹23,500–45,500

Monday's Borra route has no practical bus, so this mostly applies to the Vizag days.

LIMITED USE

Own car, Vizag days only	₹7,800–15,300 pp
Road transport	₹700–1,200 fuel + parking
Whole trip	₹23,500–46,000

Only if the car is already in Vizag. Hill legs still need cabs.

Luggage

Luggage plan
